

ON-LINE FIG1. Sagittal (A) and axial (B) T2-weighted MR images and MR imaging myelography (C). Note the syringomyelic cavity extending from levels T2 to T7 (arrow). Arachnoid adhesions occupy the subarachnoid space posterior and lateral to the cord (arrowheads). In this case, the syrinx appears more extended just below the level of the arachnoid thickening.